ARTARIA 2

STRAUSS / TELEMANN / BEETHOVEN / BOZZA / POWNING

ARTARIA 2 is a virtuosic tour de force of breathtaking double reed sounds, an eclectic mix of evocative chamber music, layered together in a stunning studio first.

From haunting oboe d'amores – 'the oboe of love' – to a modern Australian seven instrument multi-layering, Celia Craig's new album centres around a new reading of a lesser known masterpiece: Beethoven's Grand Trio for two oboes and cor anglais, originally published by Artaria Editions, Vienna.

"Ingeniously arranged and expertly performed, this recording is a must for fans of the oboe, or for anyone seeking to experience the unique expressiveness and wit this instrument has to offer ..."

Jonathan Kelly, Principal Oboe,
Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra

"... a remarkable musician. Australia is fortunate to now claim her (and Adelaide is the incredibly lucky city she has chosen to call home). I have never heard her play anything any less than world class ..."

Carl Vine AO

"Artaria ... the musical superior to the 'Hill of Grace' or 'Grange', in my opinion ..."

Peter Fenton,
Australian Performing Rights Association

"What a brilliant concept!"

Sarah Roper, Principal Oboe,
Royal National Orchestra, Seville

ARTARIA 2

"... a great ambassador for her own instrument, the oboe, her enthusiasm and knowledge spreads much further ... fascinating to follow her latest new directions, and musical exploration comes naturally to her. We're fortunate to have this unusual artist in our midst."

Judith Weir, CBE, Master of The Queens Music
